SOURCE EVALUATIONS ARE DEFINITIVE. APPRAISAL OF CONTENT IS TENTATIVE.

1. In spite of the promise of the government of the Rumanian People's Republic to consider public health as its primary concern, there is almost a total lack of antibiotics and vitamin products. Rumanians, during trips outside the country if they are fortunate enough to be able to travel, stock up as much as possible on these products.
2. Since 1 January 1955, the output of the cotton factory, Teba, in Arad has attained but two-thirds of a previously established goal. The reason for this failure is given as the irregular and insufficient importation of raw (unsterile) cotton from the USSR.
